

Lean Process Layouts Course Objectives

- Describe the purpose of setting up work cells based on product families.
- Explain the purpose of a macro workflow and why it should be developed before micro workflows are determined.
- Identify major issues to consider when laying out a macro workflow.
- List factors that must be considered when establishing a micro workflow.